For Immediate Release: (Fall, 2009)

HGI Company is proud to announce that Angela Damon has received a CFO of the Year Award for 2009 from the Milwaukee Business Journal. The annual award program honors the important work chief financial officers do in helping their firms prosper "I am thankful to be recognized for the efforts and achievements of the entire finance team at HGI Company; I am extremely pleased that our efforts to deliver consistently high quality financials and financial services to the organization have contributed to its success and earned this honor amongst such great companies." said Angela Damon, Vice President of Finance at HGI Company.

"These winners exemplify the fine work done by CFOs throughout southeast Wisconsin, said Mark Kass, editor of The Business Journal. "They deserve recognition for the work they do every day for their companies and in the community." The Business Journal and a professional panel measure the performance of its nominees and the impact that they have on their organization and community to determine the award winners.

The Business Journal recognized the award winners at an awards luncheon and presented plaques marking the achievement.
