HGI Company is proud to once again receive multiple awards in the 2010 Graphics Excellence Awards Competition. HGI Company submitted a total of 49 entries and won 44 awards. In addition, HGI was one of only four companies to be recognized for award winning entries all ten years of the competitions existence. "I am most proud of the ten year achievement award; it exemplifies the fact that product quality is an ongoing and integral part of our culture that we strive for every day. This competition continues to provide the opportunity for our company to directly compare results with the best in the industry." said Craig C. Faust, President/CEO.

Hosted by the Printing Industries of Wisconsin for the 10th consecutive year, the competition is a statewide competition that provides a forum for recognizing companies that have combined craftsmanship and technology in the creation, design, and production of top quality printed material. This year, over eight hundred entries were submitted from the state's top printing companies and judged by industry experts from outside the state of Wisconsin. Some of the award winning submissions for HGI Company were:
