FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Burlington, WI – May 2010 – HGI Company of Burlington, Wisconsin is proud to announce that it has received a “Top Workplace” designation for its commitment to employees and emphasis on being an employer of choice. The Top 100 Workplace Competition sponsored by the Milwaukee Journal recognized companies for their achievement at an awards presentation held on Friday, May 21, 2010.

“It is an honor to receive this award; our culture is predicated on open communication, participation and ultimately the execution of our long-term vision by our employees. As a company we expect to deliver on our promise of continued growth for the organization, therefore providing opportunity for every individual within. The people who are HGI will always be its most valued resource,” said Craig C. Faust, President/CEO of HGI Company.

The Top Workplace competition is unique in the fact that employees nominated and rated their employers for consideration through a survey process administered and controlled by an independent workplace consulting firm. The survey considered employee perceptions of their company’s direction, leadership, working conditions, career opportunities and benefit packages. For more information on the competition go to:
